

CHRISTINE KERRICK

Graphic design. Illustration. Inspiration.

With thirteen years' extensive graphic design and illustration experience in the advertising and public relations industries, Christine Kerrick is an established artist with a track record of producing clean, dynamic print and web projects. Her ability to create illustrations and prepare complete graphic files for print vendors has given her a reputation for staying within budget and on deadline.

Christine Kerrick is an award-winning graphic designer and illustrator. She manages multiple projects from beginning to end, and has a keen eye for quality control.

Christine is well-versed in brand identity, having worked with the staffing company Interim to rebrand them globally as Spherion, a human capital consulting company. Christine continued working beyond her job description at Broward Sheriff's Office, where she helped solve two cases using forensic art techniques. Christine works not only to achieve deadline goals, but overall brand and marketing goals for the company.

work history.

Christine Kerrick Images

Coconut Creek, FL/West Chester, PA. 2008-present. Freelance illustration and graphic design.

Coral Ridge Ministries

Fort Lauderdale, Florida. 2006-2008. National media ministry. Web/graphic designer. Designed print and web-based projects.

Broward Sheriff's Office

Fort Lauderdale, Florida. 2001 to 2006. Nationally accredited law enforcement agency. Graphic Designer/Production Coordinator. Designed and managed production of all print projects for Law Enforcement, Detention & Community Control, Fire Rescue and Administrative departments; 17 county districts in all. Assisted web designer by designing pages and page elements.

Spherion Corporation

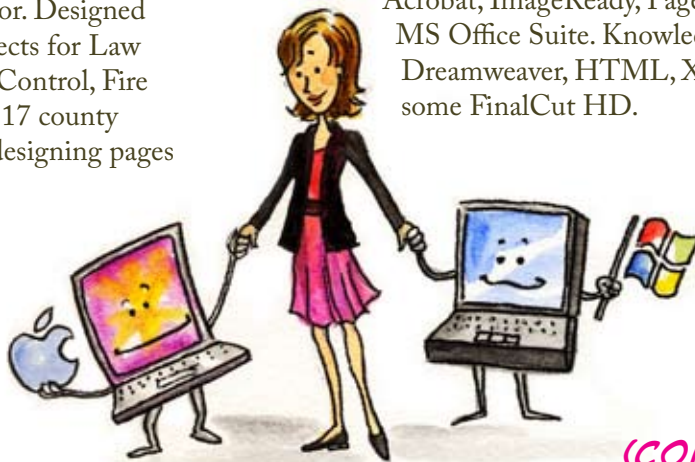

Fort Lauderdale, Florida. 1999-2001. Human capital consulting company. Graphic Designer. Designed collateral, advertising and promotional items for in-house and global needs. Created Style Guide for new branding.

skills.

Established and recognized artist. Proficient in all artistic media including painting in oil, acrylic and watercolor, drawing, sculpture, mixed media, photography. Proficient in non-fiction and fiction writing in most genres. Articulate communicator.

Strengths in design and illustration on both Mac and PC and illustration in all media and subject matter. Skilled in vendor management, quality management and print production. Proficient in Quark, InDesign, Illustrator, Photoshop, Acrobat, ImageReady, PageMaker and MS Office Suite. Knowledgeable in Dreamweaver, HTML, XML and some FinalCut HD.

(CONTINUED) >

Christine Kerrick

phone: (954) 295-0955 | email: christinekerrick@yahoo.com | www.christinekerrick.com

CHRISTINE KERRICK

Graphic design. Illustration. Inspiration.

education and training.

FBI Academy.

Forensic Facial Imaging. Quantico, Virginia. 2004

University of the Arts.

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. BFA Illustration, 1989 awards. shows. projects.

Gallery 101.

Fort Lauderdale, FL. Exhibited 15 paintings. August 2009 - December 2009

Woman of the Year. Broward County, FL - nomination 2007

Diary of Hope graphic novel.

Wrote, illustrated and produced 60-page full-color graphic novel. Released at San Diego Comicon 2006

San Diego Comicon Art Show.

Showed four works in graphite. 2004

EMPIRE comic book series.

Wrote, illustrated and produced third of three comics. 2004

Best of Business Card Design 3. Northlight Books. 1998

hobbies and interests.

Writing, working out, painting, drawing, all visual arts media, traveling, photography, reading, bike riding, space planning, Starbucks, producing music.

civic and volunteer.

Service Oversight Volunteer.

Calvary Chapel, Ft. Lauderdale, 2001-2009

Compassion International, 2005-present industry associations.

Graphic Artists Guild

Society of Children's Book Illustrators and Writers

Portfolio available upon request

